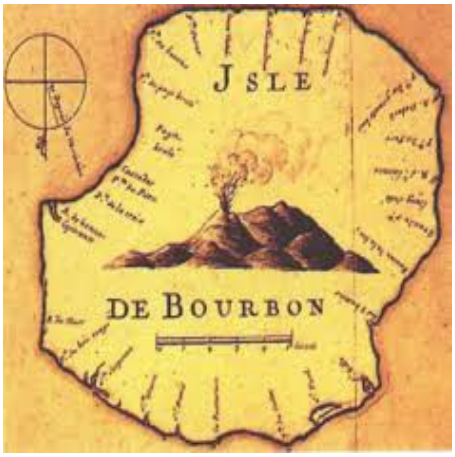
A short history of Reunion Island

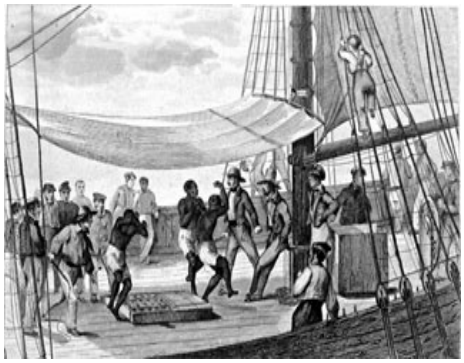
The island was discovered in the 16th century.



In 1642 the island was named " Bourbon Island ".

The Bourbon island was administrated by the company of India in 1665.

The moka coffee was sent on the island in 1708.



Slavery on the island was abolished in December 20th, 1848.