

STOGIE T

Stogie T had an amazing performance on Thursday the 2nd of February in Kerveguen at St Pierre.

But before telling you about his memorable and amazing performance, we will introduce him in case you don't know this legend of rap.

Stogie T's life

Tumi Molekane also known as Stogie T is a South African rapper, poet and songwriter. He was born on the 16th of August 1981 so he is 41. He comes from Tanzania near South Africa but now he lives in South Africa in Soweto and his parents were fighters against Apartheid. People describe him as someone who is really dynamic, enthusiastic, funny and most of all sociable.

But now, let's talk about Stogie T's concert.

Stogie T's concert

The atmosphere during the show was just amazing, there was a really good vibe. The singers and musicians played unbelievably great, people were literally mesmerized by their voices. The spectators were secondary pupils who are from different schools but everybody got along, danced, sang and had fun. Stogie T performed with his musicians:

- Shane Cooper, as is the bass player
- Bonj, she is a chorist
- Bokani Dyer, he is also a chorist
- Clem Carr, he manages the samples
- Justin Badenhorst, on the drums

The best moment of the show was when everybody sang with him and at the end of the performance, when the spectators were able to take pictures and have a chat with him and the musicians!

At the end of the show, we were able to talk with him and ask some question like:

“What was his inspiration which motivated him to become a rapper?” and he said “it comes from American rappers like Ice Cube and others.
