

INTERNATIONAL FRENCH BACCALAUREATE

What is the BFI?

The French baccalaureate with an emphasis on languages and cultures

14 different languages: Arabic, Chinese, Danish, Dutch, English (American, Australian, British), German, Italian, Japanese, Norwegian, Polish, Portuguese and Brazilian Portuguese, Russian, Spanish, Swedish

Good reasons why I should choose the BFI

- ✓ Get the French baccalaureate
- ✓ Study other cultures, languages and civilisations
- ✓ Enhance my linguistic skills in a plurilingual environment
- ✓ Follow an immersive education in a foreign culture
- ✓ Engage in research with an international dimension
- ✓ Follow a demanding and recognized curriculum
- ✓ Prepare for higher education in France and abroad

After my BFI

- ✓ Recognition by universities in France and abroad
- ✓ Access to higher education via Parcoursup, College Board APs and other procedures
- ✓ Double diploma (German, Spanish, Italian bilingual BFI)
- ✓ CEFR language level (C1/C2)

REUSSIR
AU LYCÉE

BFI specific courses and hours

5 extra hours for a minimum of 8 hours taught in a foreign language

* In German sections, 2 hours of history and geography are taught in French and 4 hours are taught in German.

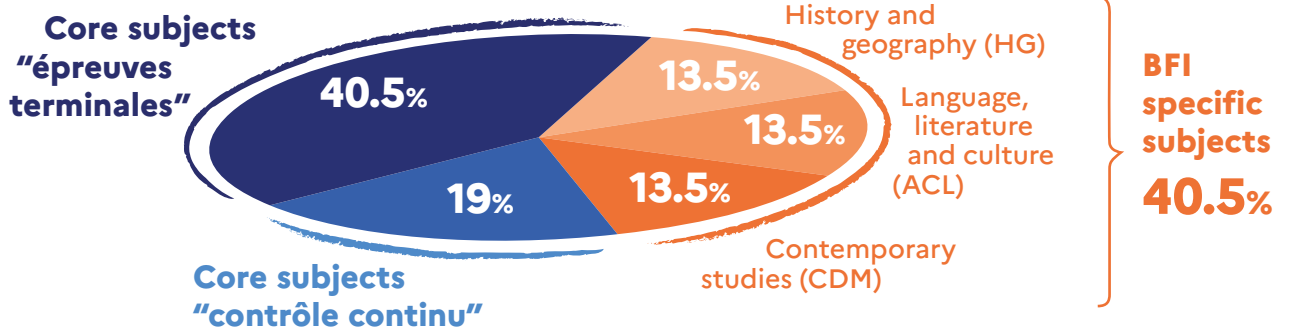

In Chinese sections, history and geography are taught in French and 1.5 hour of mathematics in Chinese is added.

CDM or contemporary studies

A new innovative coursework exploring contemporary and social issues combined with personal research in partnership with a native contact ending up in an oral presentation.
