Elizabeth married Philip Mountbatten at Westminster the 20th November 1952. From this marriage were born 4 children : Charles Philip Arthur George born as the Prince Charles of Edinburgh, Princess Royal Anne Elizabeth Alice Louise, Prince of York Andrew Albert Christian Edward and Prince Edward Anthony Richard Louis, Earl Wessex and Forfar. She called the year 1992 "annus horibilis" because of all the problems happened in that year in the Royal family.

She was crowned the 2nd June 1952 at 26 years old. She became the queen of 16 independent states and chef of the Commonwealth but she didn't have absolute direct power. Originally, it was her father's brother who was supposed to be crowned but he abdicated because he was in love with a commoner, moreover divorced American woman.

Queen Elizabeth II witnessed a lot of historical moment like the independence of India, the second World War, the decolonisation of her lands, the cold war, the build of the Berlin wall and its destruction, the fall off the Twin Towers and so on. She was a very famous Queen if it was not the most liked.
