Harassment can take many forms

Verbal harassment

(insults, mockery)

.....

Social harassment

(deliberate exclusion)

.....

Physical harassment

(violence, aggression)

.....

cyberbullying (stalking online via social media or email)

.....

What consequences for the victim?

- Mental health issues (e.g., depression)
- Anxiety
- Post-traumatic stress
- Suicidal thoughts
- It can also affect academic performance, self-confidence and social relationships

It is essential to take bullying seriously and to work collectively to prevent, report and fight.

Create a safe and caring school environment for all students.

Early reporting can help end bullying and provide support to the victim.
